

A Large Shipment of Advance Styles

Out of thousands of lines we have selected our spring stock. We have some raving beauties in the correct suits and long coats, direct from New York. We're proud to show you whether you buy or want to look.

Men's Easter Suits

YES! HUNDREDS OF THEM

$15, $18, $20, $25

McKibbin Hats - $3.00

Florsheim Shoes - $5.00

Swell Neckwear, Gloves, Hose, Shirts, Underwear and everything to make the spring outfit complete.

FRANK A. CRAM

Ederheimer-Stein Young Men's Clothes

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION.

L. J. Marsh was in Portland Friday. Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's. E. C. Mananey was in The Dalles Sunday. Chas. A. Mosely was in Portland last Thursday. Geo. R. Wibur was in The Dalles last Friday. Joe Hess, of Stevenson, Wash., was here last week. H. H. Hood and wife were in Portland last week. Mrs. Gladys Adams spent the week end in Portland. Just received a car load of wood pipe, m16. Charles L. Wheeler spent the week end in Portland. E. R. Bradley and son Elton were in Portland Monday. Clint Wood returned last week from Walla Walla, Wash. Mrs. Jack Robinson has removed to Walla Walla, Wash. J. C. Thompson was in Bingen, Wash., last week. H. C. Barchus, of Portland, was here Tuesday on business. Holman on the Heights has ground lone for poultry. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Newby were in Portland last week. S. E. Bartness was in Portland on business last week. J. C. Thomas was in Mosier last Tuesday on business. Mrs. Levi Clarke visited relatives in The Dalles last week. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson. Arthur Clarke and wife were in The Dalles Thursday night. C. K. Marshall was in Portland the latter part of the last week. L. W. Hills and family left here last week for Hynes, California. J. Leland Henderson was here from Portland on business Monday. Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Powell Sunday morning, a boy.

Lawrence K. Kelley was in The Dalles Monday on business. Mrs. J. E. Hall visited friends in Portland over the week end. Arthur P. Tift, of Portland, spent Sunday with Hood River friends. Born-To Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lockman Wednesday, March 15, a boy. Automobile insurance written by Hood River Abstract Co. W. A. Firebaugh spent Sunday here with his brother, J. L. Firebaugh. Capt. H. C. Coe, of Portland, was here the first of the week on business. Mrs. W. F. Laraway and Mrs. R. E. Laraway visited in Portland last week. F. E. Anderson, of St. Paul, Minn., has been here investigating prospects. Mrs. Aldrich Aldred, of Seattle, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Oscar Vanderhill. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Nissen, of Grand Junction, Colo., were here last week prospecting. J. C. Fritz, of The Dalles, game warden of Wasco county, was here Monday on business. J. W. Mayer, of Marquam, was here the week end visiting the family of his brother, Ed. Mayer. Mrs. J. F. Batchelder came up Saturday from Portland, where she has been spending the winter. Wyandling lamp coal is the best and the most economical. For sale by the Transfer Company, phone 5. Christian Science services are held in Reading Room No. 6 Davidson Building, Sunday 11 a. m. and Wednesday 8 p. m. For the latest in hair goods, call at Fleur De Lis Millinery, Bartness Building for this week only. W. L. Shelton and wife returned Saturday from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Iowa. Rev. T. S. Handsaker and family will return today from Portland, where they have been on a short visit to friends. Mrs. Peter Michels arrived here last week from Little Falls, Minn., for a visit to the family of her cousin, Peter Mohr. A house and lot on State street, east of Ninth street, for $1,500. Terms one-half cash. G. Y. Edwards & Co. Dr. E. O. Duto spent the week end with his family at Latourelle, where they have been spending the winter on their ranch. E. R. Moller has returned to his ranch near Summit after a three month's visit with his parents in Brooklyn, N. Y. F. H. Cobb, father of Mrs. E. R. Manning, who has been in the Valley for the past year, left for Portland for a short visit. W. H. Messer, wife and daughter, of Wenatchee, Wash., and Mrs. Slade, of Portland, visited the family of M. M. Hill last week. Mrs. H. D. W. Penco entertained last Thursday afternoon at bridge in honor of her guests, Misses Johnson and Barr, of Portland. Mrs. F. F. McCrea returned Saturday from a ten days' trip through eastern Oregon, where she attended a series of missionary meetings. Opie Dillday has been seized by the charm of the country life. His friends will now find him established on the ranch of J. R. Shelton. Miss Snow Copper is ready to resume her dress making work. She has spent the winter in Portland making a study of the latest designs. For Sale—Choice lot of Newtowns and Orley trees, 4 to 6 feet, also cherry and peach trees. Hood River grown. m39. After spending a few days in Portland Miss Grace Michell, who left here Saturday, will go to Seaview, where she will spend the summer. Mrs. William Eccles and daughter arrived Saturday evening from Ogden, Utah. After a short visit here they will leave for California. J. E. Gall, of Ionia, Iowa, and his son, T. L. Gall, of Portland, arrived here Saturday. Mr. Gall, Sr., is considering locating in the Valley. The new building being erected on Twelfth street by J. T. Holman is nearing completion. The interior plaster work is being finished this week. Mrs. D. O. Lund, one of the most successful missionaries in the Philippine Islands, will speak in the Alliance Chapel Sunday, March 26 at 2:30 P. M. Dr. W. M. Post and family, of Wisconsin, have arrived here and will locate on their ranch as soon as their household goods arrive from the east. Hunt Paint & Wallpaper Co.—New Spring Line of Wallpaper. Everything new. No old stock. Remnants at big reduction to make room for new stock. m30. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Deem returned Tuesday from Galva, Ill. Mrs. Deem had the misfortune to break her ankle some two weeks ago and is still forced to use crutches. Chris Ranley has removed his shoe shop from the Model Bakery building to the Cowley shop on Second street, opposite the postoffice. First-class work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

Utah land plaster at Whiteheads. If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's. Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Sloan yesterday morning, a boy. Insure your automobile against accident. See Hood River Abstract Co. O. J. Tillison, of Portland, has been here this week with friends. Mrs. A. F. Wise, of Denver, Colo., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Laurence N. Blowers. The Fashion Livery Co. has begun the construction of its large stable at the corner of Oak and First streets. Now is the time to buy coal, when you need a good, steady, hot fire. Call up the Transfer Company, phone 5, and give them your order. G. D. Woodworth has returned from his prospecting trip to Mexico and southern California. If interested in an 800 acre tract of raw fruit land near Portland at $20 per acre. Telephone 277-M. Will bear the closest investigation. m23. John Franz and a party of friends came here for a short visit from the Dalles last week by automobile. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nichols, of Portland, are spending this week here. Mr. Nichols is attending to business. When you get ready to saw that ever field, do so by buying seed, go to McDonald and get fresh seed. a-6. Raymond R. Early was here from the State University at Eugene spending the week end with his parents. Free Employment Bureau. Baptist parsonage, cor., 11th Pine Sts. Address S. R. Hargreaves. Phone 242-L. Fred W. Wasson returned Sunday evening from a three months' visit with friends and relatives in Indiana. Rev. T. S. Handsaker and family will return today from Portland, where they have been on a short visit to friends. Mrs. Peter Michels arrived here last week from Little Falls, Minn., for a visit to the family of her cousin, Peter Mohr. A house and lot on State street, east of Ninth street, for $1,500. Terms one-half cash. G. Y. Edwards & Co. Dr. E. O. Duto spent the week end with his family at Latourelle, where they have been spending the winter on their ranch. E. R. Moller has returned to his ranch near Summit after a three month's visit with his parents in Brooklyn, N. Y. F. H. Cobb, father of Mrs. E. R. Manning, who has been in the Valley for the past year, left for Portland for a short visit. W. H. Messer, wife and daughter, of Wenatchee, Wash., and Mrs. Slade, of Portland, visited the family of M. M. Hill last week. Mrs. H. D. W. Penco entertained last Thursday afternoon at bridge in honor of her guests, Misses Johnson and Barr, of Portland. Mrs. F. F. McCrea returned Saturday from a ten days' trip through eastern Oregon, where she attended a series of missionary meetings. Opie Dillday has been seized by the charm of the country life. His friends will now find him established on the ranch of J. R. Shelton. Miss Snow Copper is ready to resume her dress making work. She has spent the winter in Portland making a study of the latest designs. For Sale—Choice lot of Newtowns and Orley trees, 4 to 6 feet, also cherry and peach trees. Hood River grown. m39. After spending a few days in Portland Miss Grace Michell, who left here Saturday, will go to Seaview, where she will spend the summer. Mrs. William Eccles and daughter arrived Saturday evening from Ogden, Utah. After a short visit here they will leave for California. J. E. Gall, of Ionia, Iowa, and his son, T. L. Gall, of Portland, arrived here Saturday. Mr. Gall, Sr., is considering locating in the Valley. The new building being erected on Twelfth street by J. T. Holman is nearing completion. The interior plaster work is being finished this week. Mrs. D. O. Lund, one of the most successful missionaries in the Philippine Islands, will speak in the Alliance Chapel Sunday, March 26 at 2:30 P. M. Dr. W. M. Post and family, of Wisconsin, have arrived here and will locate on their ranch as soon as their household goods arrive from the east. Hunt Paint & Wallpaper Co.—New Spring Line of Wallpaper. Everything new. No old stock. Remnants at big reduction to make room for new stock. m30. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Deem returned Tuesday from Galva, Ill. Mrs. Deem had the misfortune to break her ankle some two weeks ago and is still forced to use crutches. Chris Ranley has removed his shoe shop from the Model Bakery building to the Cowley shop on Second street, opposite the postoffice. First-class work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

Get your bees and supplies from W. W. Dakin, 1205 7th St. m23-L. Dr. C. W. Edmunds, of Eugene, spent a part of the week here on business. After an extended trip through California Arthur McCreery returned here Sunday. Wire wound spray hose will stand your power pump. Buy it from McDonald. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Crichfield arrived here Sunday from Iowa City, Ia. Dr. Crichfield is located with Dr. H. D. W. Penco. Mrs. Leslie, who has been visiting at the Blythe home on her return from California, left Saturday for her home in Spokane. We are offering some good investments in hay lands. B. E. Duncan & Co. D. E. Miller, who is a sufferer from rheumatism, has returned from Hot Lake in eastern Oregon. He reports his health improved from his sojourn there. Latest in hair goods consisting of puffs, switches, curls and chignons, at wholesale prices, at Fleur De Lis Millinery, Bartness Building, for this week only. The Horticultural Fire Relief will save you 40 per cent insurance. See T. D. Tweedy, 12th St. Phone 147-L. m30. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peugh and Miss Nettie Peugh, their daughter, returned Tuesday from southern California, where they have been spending the winter. Jno. W. Pace, of North Yakima, Wash., accompanied by his friend, L. C. Parker, of Arizona, was here the first of the week inspecting the Valley lands. All kinds of house painting and interior decorating, tinting and paper hanging. Paper at Portland prices. Frank Dayton, Cascade and Second streets. Phones 208-M. and 342-L. H. C. Tatro, a former resident of this place, who is now engaged in the real estate and insurance business at Yamhill, was here Saturday on business. J. E. Montgomery returned Friday from Eugene, where he had been to attend an initiation of the University of Oregon chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity. We are offering some good investments at Trout Lake and Canas Prairie. B. E. Duncan & Co. Mesdames Smith and Davidson, of Portland, will be in the city for one week only with a complete line of hair goods at Fleur De Lis Millinery, Bartness Building. The Loyal Beroans of the First Christian Church gave a social in the church parlors last Thursday evening. A fine time was reported by the large crowd that was in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Collins, of Peopletone, Illinois, the former home of J. M. Schmeltzer, were here last week. The women returning to their eastern home after a trip in California. Hunt Paint & Wallpaper Co.—New Spring Line of Wallpaper. Everything new. No old stock. Remnants at big reduction to make room for new stock. m30. J. S. Wheeler has come up from Portland to spend the summer on his ranch in the Upper Valley. His family will arrive later. For Fire Insurance see Tweedy. He is agent for the Horticultural Fire Relief. A saving of 40 per cent to you. This is one of the strongest companies in Oregon. m33. E. C. Shibley has purchased the old Mills place in the Belmont district. Mr. and Mrs. Shibley will make their home there as soon as their household goods arrive from St. Paul, Minn., the place of their former home. W. W. Krog, a student of the University of Missouri from Washington, Mo., and F. A. Bradley, of the Manual Training department of the Washington University at St. Louis, arrived here Tuesday afternoon to spend the summer in order to make a study of the methods of fruit culture here. The Sunshine Society of the Unitarian church will give a tea party next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church. Light refreshments will be served and games will be played. Everybody cordially invited. Admission 10 cents. The local teachers institute, which was to have been held here Saturday, April 8, and at which State Superintendent L. R. Alderman was to have delivered an address, has been postponed for a week on account of Mr. Alderman's recent illness. J. Chas. Batchelder, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Batchelder of this city, who for a number of years has been with the E. H. Rollins & Co., a Boston banking house, has just been promoted to the head of the municipal bond department of the bank.

D. Donaldson, J. Donaldson and Wm. Donaldson, three young men from Edinburgh, Scotland, have been here investigating northwestern fruit culture. Cheap Building Sites—Residence lots in the new Middleton Addition, one block south of High School. Price $250 to $500, 10 per cent down, easy installments. John Leland Henderson, Inc. R. P. Finney and family have moved here from Puyallup, Wash., to the ranch formerly owned by Miss Failing which he recently purchased. Mr. Finney came east from Iowa about a year ago. Hotel Oregon will serve their Table D'Hote and a La Carte dinner each Sunday hereafter from 12 M. to 2 P. M. and music in the evening by the Hood River Guitar and Mandolin Club, 5:30 to 7:30 P. M. Hunt Paint & Wallpaper Co.—New Spring Line of Wallpaper. Everything new. No old stock. Remnants at big reduction to make room for new stock. m30. C. F. Swander, of Portland, Corresponding Secretary of the Oregon Christian Missionary Society, will speak in the First Christian Church of Hood River, April 9. He will bring a message that all should hear. The following people from Portland have been at Mrs. Alma Howe's for the past week: The family of Dr. Chas. F. Chamberlain; the family of Mr. Bloch, of the Marx & Bloch Jewelry Co.; the Misses Caine and Smith. We have a limited amount of fertilizer in stock now, but would advise ordering at once as Portland supplies are already short and we may not be able to fill broken lines later on. See Strahan & Clark. m-30. John Walters and family returned Monday from a visit with friends in Riverdale and San Bernardino, Calif. Mr. Walters stated on his lighting from the train that Hood River sunshine looked fine after California's rain. "God's Temples" will be the subject of Minister T. S. Handsaker's discourse at the First Christian Church next Sunday morning. In the evening a special song service will be held. A. B. Cash will deliver the address of the evening. Frank Dayton, the painter, is now prepared to do all kinds of sign work, also carriage and automobile painting, in his new quarters on Cascade and Second streets. Phones 208-M. and 342-L. Homer Woodworth, who carries the Heights' mail, has recently received the good news of a hundred dollar increase in his salary. Mr. Woodworth has been in the service for 22 years, having been carrier at Milwaukee and Portland before coming here. J. Wesley Ladd and Dr. Herbert Nichols passed through the city Sunday night on their return to Portland from a visit to the new club house of the Snow Shoe club, of that city. The trip was made for the purpose of enjoying the excellent skiing which the region affords. In the series of sermons on "Life's Journey," which are being given by Rev. J. R. Hargreaves at the Baptist church on the Heights, the topic for next Sunday evening will be "The Home Stretch." A service of particular interest to older people as well as suggestive to the young is planned. Attorney A. A. Jayne returned last week from an extended trip through Mexico. Mr. Jayne says that he and his party did not witness any of the conflicts between the insurrectionists and the federals but states that the situation was growing a bit uncomfortable when they departed. Prof. W. H. Lawrence, the expert horticulturist who has been engaged by the Applegrowers Fellowship association, has an office in room 19 of the Heilbronner building. Prof. Lawrence may be found at the office on Saturdays. The remainder of his time is spent in field work. The dancing party given at the Odd Fellows hall last Wednesday night by Mrs. H. L. Dumble and Mrs. Chas. T. Early proved to be one of the best of the social functions of the season. The ball room was artistically decorated and Shamrock to conform to the sentiment of the approaching St. Patrick's day. A delightful buffet luncheon was served. The commencement exercises of the graduating of the nurses of the Cottage Hospital will be held Wednesday evening, April 5, at the Assembly hall of the Commercial Club. The members of the class are: Misses Lucy Freeman, Ionia McGrath and Leah Lucile Brown. An interesting program has been prepared and the public is cordially invited to attend. The pastor's theme at the Congregational church next Sunday morning will be "The Power of Self-Realization," the second in the series on "What We Believe and Why," taking up the revelation we have in Jesus Christ. The Womanhood Picture in the evening will be of Ruth—"The Heroine of an Unheroic Love." If you have anything in cabinet work, door and window frames, screens, repairing or anything in the carpenter line call 304-N. Wright's Carpenter Shop of the old Armory building.

Particular People

...INSIST ON...

Whiting's Stationery

Why not as particular in your Stationery as in your Dress.... Both make the same impression

There are lots of Papers, but only one WHITINGS.

The Home for Whiting's Stationery

..Slocum's Book and Art Store..

Fresh Flower Garden Field Seeds

Franz Hardware Co.

PHONE 14

ANNOUNCEMENT

ATTENTION, CUSTOMERS! The main question of the day is, "How to reduce our living expenses." In order to aid in this work the Central Meat Market will, on April 1, go on a cash basis and take off its free delivery, thereby reducing expenses, and thus enabling us to cut prices, and you will gain the benefit of this reduction.

Hoping this plan will meet with the approval of the public in general and that all can see the feasibility of it, we will always be ready to welcome you at our market, and by prompt and ready attention to your requirements will endeavor to merit your patronage. We are adopting this plan to enable our regular customers to procure their living necessities at a much lower figure.

Central Meat Market

P. C. YOUNG, Proprietor

Rubber Stamps AT THE GLACIER OFFICE

Still Another Lot of

Alfred Benjamin Spring Clothes

THE WINDOW TELLS THE STORY

J. G. VOGT